"THEY RECEIVED THE WORD WITH ALL READINESS OF MIND, AND SEARCHED THE SCRIPTURES DAILY, WHETHER THOSE THINGS WERE SO. THEREFORE MANY OF THEM BELIEVED" ~ ACTS 17:11,12

Thy Choice - Which?

Oh! which shall I choose,
Accept, or refuse, -
The pleasures of sin for a season?
Or cling to the Cross,
Through profit or loss.
Oh! tell me, and give me a reason?

The reasons I give
All others outlive,
The pleasures of sin are deceiving;
And soon pass away.
Like winter's short day.
And leave the soul dark with its grieving:

Then cling to the Cross,
And count it not loss
To sacrifice earth's empty pleasure;
Think nothing of pain,
If Heaven thou gain,
And there have thy storehouse of treasure!

CHRIST IS THE ANSWER

Greetings to the Saints of God!

Pastor Junior & Brenda Tingle

Hello Christian Friends

I hope this letter finds you well. I am thrilled to share with you the incredible experience we had at our recent youth camp. The presence of God was great, and His Spirit moved mightily among us.

Highlights of the Youth Camp:

Youth Enthusiasm: We were blessed to have a large number of enthusiastic young people attend the camp. Their energy, passion, and hunger for God were truly inspiring.

Worship and Prayer: Our worship sessions were powerful, lifting our hearts and connecting us to the divine. The prayer times were equally impactful, as we sought God's guidance and surrendered our lives to Him.

Teaching and Fellowship: Our speakers delivered insightful messages, our VBS for the younger children was challenging them to grow deeper in our faith. The fellowship among attendees fostered lasting friendships and encouraged spiritual growth.

Expectancy: Throughout the camp, we held an unwavering expectation that God would move in miraculous ways. And He did! Lives were transformed, hearts were healed, and faith was strengthened.

Gratitude: I want to express my heartfelt gratitude to each one of you. Your prayers, support, and presence made this camp a resounding success. Your commitment to our youth ministry is invaluable, and we are deeply thankful for your partnership.

Looking Ahead: As we reflect on this camp, we eagerly anticipate what the Lord will continue to do. Our hearts remain expectant, knowing that His plans for our youth are abundant and purposeful.

Thank you once again for standing with us. Your investment in the lives of these young people is making an eternal impact.

P.S. If you have any specific prayer requests or would like more details about the camp, feel free to reach out. We value your continued support!

Sincerely, Bro. Jr. Tingle

Guilty Of Grand Theft

Tens of millions have been robbed of the great peace, joy and power of full Bible salvation. Nothing could be worse than being robbed of eternal life with Christ Robbed, by being told they were saved if they only believed on the Lord Jesus Christ.

Who Robbed Them?

Jesus answers; false prophets, or wolves in sheep's clothing, Matt. : . Paul confirms this; false apostles, transforming themselves into apostles of Christ, II Cor. : . No marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light, II Cor. : . No marvel; for satan himself is transformed into an angel of light II Cor. :

Are Ministers Held Responsible For The Truth?

Most ministers today are honest and sincere. They believe they are teaching the truth. They are preaching and teaching what they learned in Bible College. They fail to recognize that they, who founded their doctrine, were false prophets looking for an easier way to win souls.

NEVERTHELESS, they are responsible for what they teach. Paul said to examine yourselves to see whether you be in the faith, II Cor. : .

DANGER! Paul said if any man, even an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel than that which we have preached, LET HIM BE ACCURSED, Gal. 1 :8.

America's leading evangelist was asked in his question and answer column in the newspaper, how do you know when you are born again? His answer was, the moment you believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, that instant you are born again.

When Nicodemus asked Jesus that question, how can a man be born again, Jesus said, "Except you are born of the water and the Spirit, you cannot enter the kingdom of God," St John : . Nothing was said about only believing.

Jesus did not say in Mark : - He that believeth shall be saved, but rather he that believeth and is baptized shall be saved.

Let The Bible Speak!

Peter, having the keys to the kingdom, answered the now believing multitudes' question - on the Day of Pentecost, "what shall we do?" His answer was, "repent and be baptized everyone of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of your sins and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost," Acts : - . To only believe will never remit your sins. The blood that remits your sins can only be applied through the name of Jesus, Acts : ; Hebrews : ; I John : .

GENTILE BELIEVERS

The tenth chapter of Acts tells us about a very devout group of Gentile believers, the household of Cornelius. In a vision, the angel of the Lord told him to send for Peter and he would tell them what they oughtest to do, Acts

This is made very clear in Acts : . "tell thee words whereby thou and all thy house shall be saved.." REMEMBER, they were already devout believers, but were not saved.

THE RESULTS - As Peter preached unto them the Holy Ghost fell on them for they heard them speak in tongues, the same as the Jews did on the Day of Pentecost Peter immediately commanded them to be baptized in the name of the Lord. Acts : - God's New Testament plan of salvation never changes. This plan is for "you, your children and to all that are afar off ...," Acts : . YOU MUST BELIEVE - Philip had just preached a great revival in Samaria where many were baptized in Jesus name and later received the Holy Ghost., Acts : - The angel sent Philip south into the desert to tell the believing Ethiopian Eunuch what he had to do to be saved. He preached unto him Jesus, no doubt telling him the necessity of being baptized. As they approached a certain water, the Eunuch cried out, see, here is water, what doth hinder me from being baptized?

Philip said if thou believest with all thy heart, thou mayest. The Eunuch said I believe in Jesus. Acts : . Most ministers today would say that's enough you're saved. True Bible salvation is not that easy. They stopped the chariot and both went down into the water and Philip baptized him. Water and Spirit is a must. Jesus said so, John : -Peter preached it, Acts : .

FIRST you must believe. "for he that cometh to God must believe that He is and He is a rewarder of them that diligently seek Him" Heb. : . James confirms this when he said, "faith without works is dead," James : .

UNSAVED BELIEVERS

The Ephesian believers had been baptized by Apollos, the most gifted evangelist of the first century. He was "eloquent, mighty in the scriptures ... , instructed in the way of the Lord and fervent in the spirit," Acts : - . Nevertheless, he was ignorant of God's true plan of salvation. We have many like Apollos today. Aquila and Priscilla took him aside "and expounded unto him the way of God more perfectly," Acts : .

Paul came to Ephesus and found the disciples that Apollos had baptized. His first question, "have ye received the Holy Ghost since ye believed" They had never heard about the gift of the Holy Ghost for Apollos himself had not received it. His next question, "how then were ye baptized?" They said, unto John's baptism. Paul quickly told them that John's baptism was not enough, for he merely told them to repent and believe on the Lord Jesus, Acts : . Most Preachers today don't even tell them to repent.

GOD'S PERFECT PLAN

Paul knew God's perfect plan. First of all they had not been baptized in Jesus name. He knew there was "no other name under heaven ... whereby you must be saved," Acts : . He immediately rebaptized them in the name of the Lord Jesus. He then laid hands on them and they received the Holy Ghost and spake in tongues.

Don't let any preacher rob you of this great born-again experience. This experience will give you the great joy, peace and power that will have you ready for the soon coming of Jesus.

The Walk

"Faith is daring the soul to go beyond what the eyes can see," William Newton Clark

Mark 5:36 "As soon as Jesus heard the word that was spoken, he saith unto the ruler of the synagogue, Be not afraid, only believe."

Jairus was desperate. His only daughter was dying. He had heard that this "Man from Galilee" could heal the sick. Jairus found Jesus, fell at his feet and pleaded with him to come and lay his healing hand on the twelve-year old girl. Jesus answered Jairus by walking with him to the place of his problem. Jairus' faith rose as he walked with The Healer. Another desperate person, a woman with an issue of blood, touched Jesus while He was on the way to Jairus' daughter (Jesus will always make time for you). Trembling, she confessed to the crowd that she was made whole. Jairus not only "heard" that Jesus could heal, but now he "saw" him heal this woman of faith. Jairus' faith was now soaring; his daughter was as good as healed.

Then Tragedy Struck.

As Jesus was proclaiming that this woman was made whole by her faith, a man came to Jairus and delivered devastating news: his daughter was dead and there was no further reason to bother or trouble the Master. Jesus, sensing his fear, turned immediately to Jairus and said, "Be not afraid, only believe."

Now, Jairus had a choice to make. His trusted servant had just told him that his daughter was dead and to not trouble the Master, but then Jesus said "only believe." Does he keep walking with Jesus or does he believe there's no hope and thank the Master for, at least, going part of the way with him? Does he believe facts or faith?

He chose "faith;" he chose Jesus and together they continued walking.

They arrived at Jairus' home and Jesus said to the wailing crowd, "The damsel is not dead, but sleepeth," Through the laughter and scorn, He walked into the room "where the damsel was lying." The "Life Giver" took her by the hand and said, "I say unto thee, rise." She immediately stood up and all were "astonished with a great astonishment."

Jesus is telling you today -"Don't call 'dead' what I call 'asleep'." Even when you feel the "cultures of Fear" are circling, waiting for your faith to die, if Jesus says your answer is only "sleeping," you're about ready to walk into a miracle.

"What about you? Are there dreams, visions, desires, plans or promises that you have given up on? Have you heeded voices calling you to not trouble the Master about the difficult and anxious areas of your life?"

Have you given up hope on things that you feel are beyond fixing, healing or overcoming? Had you started walking with Jesus, believing He would move in your situation, then disaster struck and you stopped praying and locked your problem and faith away?

The only thing that "troubles" the Lord is when we don't "trouble" Him.

Remember; It was when the waters of Bethesda were "troubled" that the miracle happened.

The Lord is calling you today to continue walking with Him. He wants you to take Him to the very places and areas in your heart and life that seem most dire and impossible. "For with God nothing shall be impossible" Luke :

Take Faith's dare and look beyond what your eyes can see, because even though the situation may seem impossible, it may only be asleep.

Charles L. Allen once said, "When you say a situation or a person is hopeless, you are slamming the door in the face of God."

Allow the Lord to enter the most desperate of situations in your life. Unlock any door that was slammed shut, with the hope of victory discarded. along with your dreams.

The door hinges may be rusty, the room may be dark inside, curtains drawn and cobwebs throughout. But in prayer and by faith, take the lamp unto your feet and walk and take the Lord over to your "dying victory," wipe off the dust and allow Jesus to touch your problem and say, "ictory, Arise!"

If Jairus hadn't allowed Jesus into the room where his impossibility was, there never would have been a miracle, only a funeral.

Faith sees the invisible, feels the intangible, and achieves the impossible ... So, don't give up; the "Living Water" is waiting for you to trouble Him today.

Soul Winning

The Need of The Hour

There Is a world that Is lost without God and heading toward the flames of hell Every man, woman, boy, or girl, upon this earth that dies without being born again of the water and the Spirit, will spend an eternity burning and screaming In the flames of hell (Rev. 20:15, John 3:5, John 8:24) How will they find salvation unless we take It to them? God has chosen to save people through the preaching of the Gospel of Jesus Christ All who do not bear and obey the Gospel of Jesus Christ will perish forever In the flames of hell! This Is why we must take that Gospel that we have to them. We must win souls for they are heading for an eternity In hell! We must not keep silent! We must not sit back and let them perish!

God wants YOU to be a Soul Winner!

If Jesus Christ could die to save the world, then the least we can do is tell the world of what He has already done!

Questions & Answers

Question:

Why was ISAIAH and all the Jewish prophets oneness?

Answer:

The first and greatest commandment of the law, according to Jesus, demanded it. Mark 12:29-30 with Matt.22:36-38

WHAT LAW? Deut.6:4-9 Hear,O Israel, the LORD our God is one LORD. They must believe in one God and love him with all their heart, soul and might; their children must be taught this at all times. Read Scaffolds Footnotes under Deut. 6:4-9 These scriptures in Hebrew Liturgy are known as the Shema, pronounced

SH'MAH

The Apostles and Authors of the New Testament, being Jewish, were taught the SH ' MAH from childhood on up. They could not possibly believe in a trinity consisting of three separate and distinct persons.

They knew that Jesus Christ was God manifest in the flesh. 1 Tim. 3:16

The International Encyclopedia, Vol. 16, pg. 221 states that the trinity did not form any part of the apostles teaching.

Emil Brunner, considered the foremost scholar of the twentieth century, said the idea of three separate persons is incredulous. He said that would be Tritheistic or Three Gods.

ISAIAH- WHAT SAITH THOU?

HOLY ONE?

1. Isa. 1:4 Here Isaiah states that the LORD is the Holy One of Israel. In the New Testament Jesus is known as the Holy One of Israel. This term is used over fifty times in the Bible. Never once was the term Holy Two or Holy Three ever used. Isn't that strange trinitarians?

IMMANUEL -GOD WITH US

2. Isa.7:14 -He says that a virgin would conceive and bring forth a son and his name would be called Immanuel. This was fulfilled in Matthew 1:23 . When Christ was born they called him Emmanuel being interpreted is, God with us. Yes, Jesus was God manifest in the flesh. 1 Tim. 3:16 .

MIGHTY GOD (SON)

3. Isa. 9:6 -Unto us a child is born and a son is given Jesus . He shall be called Wonderful, Counselor, the Mighty God, the Everlasting Father and Prince of Peace. Isaiah saw him as Immanuel, God with us and now as the Mighty God and Everlasting Father. No trinity here.

ONE GOD & ONE SAVIOUR

Isa.43:10-11 -Ye are my witnesses saith the LORD, that ye may know and believe me and understand that I am he: Before me there was no God formed, neither shall there be after me. verse 11, I, even I, am the LORD and beside me there is no Saviour.

Yes, Jesus Christ of the New Testament is the LORD Jehovah of the Old Testament. STRONGS, 3068-The Jewish name of God is Jehovah, the LORD. When LORD in the Old Testament is spelled with all capitals it means Jehovah. It occurred 7000 times. STRONGS, 296- Kuros, in Greek In the New Testament, when Lord is spelled with a capital L, it always means Jehovah. It is used that way 800 times in the New Testament.

ISAIAH-TELL US MORE, FIRST AND LAST

5. Isa. 44:6-8 - I am the first and the last and beside me there is no God. vs.8 -Is there a God beside me? Yea, there is no God; I know not any. Trinitarians know more than God.

Rev. 1:8 11,17, -Here Jesus claims to be the first and the last. He also claims to be the Almighty.

Surely this proves that Christ and God are one. Jesus said, "I and my father are one." St. John : .

ONLY ONE CREATOR

6. Isa. 44:24 -Jehovah said, I am the LORD that Maketh all things; that stretcheth forth the heavens alone; that spreadeth abroad the Earth by Myself.

HEAR!

HEAR!

HEAR!

Col.1:14-17 -for by him (Jesus) were all things created, that are in Heaven and Earth. He is before all things and by Him all things exist. What further proof do we need that Christ and God are One? Thank you Isaiah and Paul for further confirmation on the oneness of God. Malachi 2:10 agrees with Isaiah that we have only one father and one creator.

WHO IS EQUAL TO GOD?

Isa.46:5-To whom will ye liken me, and make me equal, and compare me, that we may be like? The Answer -Phil. : -Jesus, who being in the form of God, like him thought it not robbery to be equal with God.

ISAIAH-OPENS OUR EYES

HIS HOLY ARM!

8. Isa.52:6-10 -Isaiah prophesies concerning the day of Christ. In that day they shall know his name. vs. 10 , "the LORD hath made bare his holy arm and they shall see the salvation of our God."Isa.53:1- To whom is the arm of the LORD revealed? This entire chapter tells us that the arm of the LORD is Jesus. Read it carefully and prayerfully.

THE HUSBAND'S BRIDE

9. Isa.54:5- Thy Maker is thine husband: the LORD of hosts is his name, and thy Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel; the God of the whole earth shall he be called. The church is now the bride of Christ. What an honor to be the bride of the God of the whole earth. His name is Jesus. Are you ready for the marriage supper of the lamb?

HATED FOR HIS NAME'S SAKE

10. Isa.66:5 Your brethren that hated you and cast you out for my name's sake. He shall appear to your joy and they shall be ashamed. Mark 13:13 -Jesus said, "Ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake." Many times we who baptize in Jesus name have been refused fellowship by our Trinitarian brothers and vilified openly. We want them to know that we will always love them.

MYSTERY OF THE FATHER AND THE SON

Question: WHO IS THE ROOT & OFFSPRING OF DAVID?

Rev. 22:16

I, Jesus, am the root and the offspring of David, and the bright and morning star. Rev. 22:16. Here the dual nature of Jesus is revealed. It is impossible to understand the Godhead unless you consider His dual nature. Through His divine nature, He was the origin or Father of David. By His human nature, he was the descendant or son of David. This amazing truth is also taught by Jesus in Matthew 22:42-45. Jesus quotes Psalms. 110:1, where David said, "The LORD said unto my Lord, sit thou on my right hand till I make thine enemies thy footstool. Here Jesus admits that He is both LORD (Father) and Son of David.

LOVERS OF TRUTH

The truth of who Christ really was and is has been hidden for centuries to many Bible scholars. They are willing to accept the Catholic theory of the Trinity that claims that Jesus is merely the second person in the Godhead.

You cannot possibly love Jesus with all your heart unless you have a deep love for the truth.

John, the fourteenth chapter, tells us that Jesus is the Way, the Truth, and the Life. The truth sets us free from false doctrine and the traditions of men. If we worship Him, we must worship Him in Spirit and in Truth. (St. John 4:24) The more we seek after the truth, the greater our love for Him becomes. Remember, love is reciprocal. His love for us increases also.

Is it that important to know who Jesus is and to correctly identify Him with the Father?

YES, IT'S A MATTER OF LIFE OR DEATH!

St. John 8:24 --Jesus said, "If ye believe not that I AM (He), ye shall die in your sins." In most Bibles that word "He" is in italics, meaning that it was not in the original text. John 8:27 They understood not that He spake to them of the Father.

John 8:58, Jesus said, "before Abraham was, I AM" (not I was). Here Jesus claims to be Jehovah God of the Old Testament. Exodus 3: 14, 15

God told Moses to tell Israel that I AM hath sent you, and that this is my name forever. Adam Clark writes that I AM in the Hebrew means Jehovah Elohim, translated Lord God or Eternal God

What greater proof do we need that Jesus Christ of the New Testament is Jehovah God of the Old Testament. Remember when Lord is spelled with a capital L in the New Testament, it always means Jehovah. Jesus did not want anyone to be ignorant of who He was. He said, "I and my Father are one." John 10:30.

MORE BIBLE PROOFS

The apostle John was a devout lover of Jesus and a lover of truth. He recognized Jesus for who He really was. EXAMPLE--John 14:8-11 -- Philip said, "Show us the Father." Jesus answered, "Have I been so long time with you and yet thou hath not known me? He that hath seen me hath seen the Father." John said in I John 2:23 that he that acknowledgeth the Son hath the Father also. You can't have one without the other.

St. John 1: 1 & 14 -- "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God." Vs. 14 --and the Word was made flesh and dwelt among us."

Paul agrees with John in Col. 2:9--The fullness of the Godhead dwelleth bodily in Christ. The Living New Testament says, "in Christ there is all of God in a human body." Yes, He was the Almighty God. Rev. 1:8 -- JESUS SAID SO!

WAS JESUS HIS OWN FATHER?

We oneness people say YES. It is an amazing mystery, but true. It is quite shocking to our Trinity friends that believe in three separate persons in the Godhead.

Without believing in the dual nature of Christ, none of this would make sense. Jesus was both human and Divine. Being Divine, He was the Holy Ghost overshadowing Mary, who gave birth to His fleshly body.

St. John 14:26 -- Jesus said, "The Comforter is the Holy Ghost." (Father) John 14:7 -- Jesus said, "If ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also; from henceforth ye know Him and hath seen Him."

John 14:17, 18 -- Jesus said that the world does not know the Spirit of Truth (Holy Ghost), "but ye know Him, for He dwelleth with you, but shall be in you." Vs. 18 -- Jesus said, "I will not leave you comfortless; I will come to you." Truly Jesus is the Comforter, the Holy Ghost, the Father of His own human body.

No wonder Isaiah prophesied that Jesus would be the Everlasting Father and the Mighty God. Isa. 9:6. Lewis E. Manuwal

Christians baptism was administered using the words, "In the name of Jesus". Vol. 2, Pg. 377 The use of a Trinitarian formula of any sort was not suggested in early church history. Vol. 2, Pg387

Name was an ancient synonym for 'Person'. Payment was always made In name of some person referring to ownership. therefore one being baptized in Jesus name became his personal property. "Ye are Christs." Vol. 2, Pg 377 on Acts 2:38

Baptism was always In name of Lord Jesus until time of Justin Martyr when Triune formula was used. Vol. 2, Pg. 389.

CATHOLIC ENCYCLOPEDIA. -

Justin Martyr was one of the early Fathers of the Roman Catholic Church. Vol. 8. The Catholics acknowledged that baptism was changed by the Catholic church. Vol 2, Pg. 263

BAPTISM IN JESUS NAME According To The Bible

JESUS TAUGHT- "That repentance & remission of sins should be preached In his name beginning at Jerusalem." Luke24:47

NO OTHER NAME FOR SALVATION- ... There is none other name under heaven whereby we must be saved." Acts 4:10-12

The above scriptures are not given to refute Matt. 28:19 where Jesus told apostles to baptize in the name of the Father, & of the Son, & of the Holy Ghost. They merely show how the command was interpreted and obeyed by them.

They knew the name of the Son was Jesus. Matt. 1 :21, that the Son came in the Fathers name. Jn 5:43. They also knew that the Holy Ghost was the spirit of Christ and would come in Jesus name. John 14:26 The family name is Jesus, Eph. 3:15 The name Jesus means Jehovah Salvation. Faussets Bible Ency-clopedia• Pg. 359

Scripture Assures Us

Though troubles assail and dangers affright,
Though friends should all fail and foes all unite,
Yet one thing secures us, whatever betide,
The scripture assures us, "The Lord will provide."

The birds, without barn or storehouse, are fed;
From them let us learn to trust for our bread:
His saints what is fitting shall ne'er be denied
So long as 'tis written, "The Lord will provide."

His call we obey, like Abram of old -
Not knowing our way; but faith makes us bold;
For though we are strangers, we have a sure guide,
And trust in all dangers, "The Lord will provide."

When Satan appears to shut up our path,
And fills us with fears, we triumph by faith;
He can not take from us (though oft he has tried)
This heart-cheering promise, "The Lord will provide."

He tells us we're weak, our hope is in vain,
The good that we seek we ne'er shall obtain;
But when such suggestions our graces have tried,
This answers all questions: "The Lord will provide."

No strength of our own or goodness we claim;
Yet since we have known the Savior's great name,
In this, our strong tower, for safety we hide:
The Lord is our power, "The Lord will provide."

When life sinks apace and death is in view,
The word of his grace shall comfort us through;
Not fearing or doubting, with Christ on our side,
We hope to die shouting, "The Lord will provide."

Love Of God

O love of God, how strong and true!
Eternal, and yet ever new;
Uncomprehending and unbought,
Beyond all knowledge and all thought!

O heavenly love, how precious still!
In days of weariness and ill,
In nights of pain and helplessness,
To heal, to comfort, and to bless!

O wide-embracing, wondrous Love,
We read Thee in the sky above;
We read Thee in the earth below,
In seas that swell and streams that flow.

We read Thee best in Him who came
To bear for us the cross of shame,
Sent by the Father from on high,
One life to live, one death to die.

O Love of God, our shield and stay
Through all the perils of our way;
Eternal love, in thee we rest,
Forever safe, forever blest.

By Horatius Bonar

God's Promises Are Fair

In sacred words, divine and bright,
God's promise are fair, an endless light,
He tells of life beyond this sphere,
Of love, forgiveness ever near.

With humble hearts, we seek His grace,
Embracing Christ in every space,
For through our faith and love profound,
Eternal bliss in Him is found.

Be Careful What you Plant

An Emperor in the Far East was growing old and knew it was time to choose his successor. Instead of choosing one of his assistants or his children, he decided something different. He called young people in the kingdom together one day. He said, "It is time for me to step down and choose the next Emperor. I have decided to choose one of you." The kids were shocked! But the Emperor continued. "I am going to give each one of you a seed today; one very special seed. I want you to plant the seed, water it and come back here after one year from today with what you have grown from this one seed. I will then judge the plants that you bring, and the one I choose will be the next Emperor!"

One boy named Ling was there that day and he, like the others, received a seed. He went home and excitedly told his mother the story. She helped him get a pot and planting soil, and he planted the seed and watered it carefully. Every day he would water it and watch to see if it had grown. After about three weeks, some of the other youths began to talk about their seeds and the plants that were beginning to grow. Ling kept checking his seed, but nothing ever grew. Three weeks, four weeks, five weeks went by; still nothing. By now, others were talking about their plants but Ling didn't have a plant, and he felt like a failure. Six months went by, still nothing in Ling's pot. He just knew he had killed his seed. Everyone else had trees and tall plants, but he had nothing. Ling didn't say anything to his friends; however. He just kept waiting for his seed to grow. A year finally went by and all the youths of the kingdom brought their plants to the Emperor for inspection. Ling told his mother that he wasn't going to take an empty pot. Be honest about what happened said his mother, Ling felt sick to his stomach, but he knew his mother was right. He took his empty pot to the palace. When Ling arrived, he was amazed at the variety of plants grown by the other youths. They were beautiful in all shapes and sizes. Ling put his empty pot on the floor and many of the other kids laughed at him.

A few felt sorry for him and just said, "Hey, nice try."

When the Emperor arrived, he surveyed the room and greeted the young people. Ling just tried to hide in the back. "What great plants, trees and flowers you have grown." said the Emperor. "Today, one of you will be appointed the next Emperor!" all of a sudden, the Emperor spotted Ling at the back of the room with his empty pot. He ordered his guards to bring him to the front. Ling was terrified. "The Emperor knows I'm a failure! maybe he will have me killed!"

When Ling got to the front, the Emperor asked him his name my name is Ling." He replied!! the kids were laughing and making fun of him. The Emperor asked everyone to quiet down. He looked at Ling, and then announced to the crowd: Behold your new Emperor! His name is Ling!" Ling couldn't believe it. Ling couldn't even grow his seed. How could he be the new Emperor? Then the Emperor said, "One year ago today, I gave everyone here a seed. I told you to take the seed, plant it, water it, and bring it back to me today. But I gave you all boiled seeds, which would not grow. All of you, except Ling, have brought me trees and plants and flowers. When you found that the seed would not grow, you substituted another seed for the one I gave you. Ling was the only one with the courage and honesty to bring me a pot with my seed in it. Therefore, he is the one who will be the new Emperor!"

*If you plant honestly, you will reap trust.
If you plant goodness, you will reap friends.
If you plant humility,
you will reap greatness.
If you plant perseverance,
you will reap victory.
If you plant consideration,
you will reap harmony.
If you plant hard work,
you will reap success.
If you plant forgiveness,
YOU will reap reconciliation.
If you plant openness,*

you will reap intimacy.

*If you plant patience,
you will reap improvements.
If you plant faith, you will reap miracles.*

BUT,

*If you plant dishonesty,
you will reap distrust.*

*If you plant selfishness,
you will reap loneliness.*

If you plant pride, you will reap destruction.

If you plant envy, you will reap trouble.

*If you plant laziness,
you will reap stagnation.*

*If you plant bitterness,
you will reap isolation.*

If you plant greed, you will reap loss.

If you plant gossip, you will reap enemies.

If you plant worries, you will reap wrinkles.

If you plant sin, you will reap guilt.

So, be careful what you plant now; it will determine what you will reap tomorrow. The seeds you now scatter, will make life worse or better for your life or the ones who will come after. Yes, someday, you will enjoy the fruits, or you will pay for the choices you plant today.

*Ability will enable a man to go to the top, but it takes character to keep him
there.*

Reckless Response to Reality

Entitled to Nothing, Responsible for Everything

An excerpt from the book, Save Yourself from this Untoward Generation (An open letter from the heart of a Young Preacher to a Younger Generation) • Bro. Diego Rodrigue

Deuteronomy 4:1 'The fathers shall not be put to death for the children neither shall the children be put to death for the fathers: every man shall be put to death for his own sin'

ersonally, I feel that one of the most disgusting attitudes of this generation is what has been called the "entitlement" mentality. This is a frame of mind that people have which makes them feel like they are entitled to many things and that they even deserve them, even though they haven't worked for them. People feel like they are entitled to free food, even though they haven't worked for it free health care, even though they haven't worked for it free housing, even though they haven't worked for it free assistance with everything in life, even though they haven't paid a price for it free training and education, even though they haven't disciplined themselves for it and the list goes on and on and on. Truly, this is a terrible thing, because it has become so deeply ingrained in the minds of most Americans. Society starts grooming the average citizen, especially the poor, with this mentality at a young age, and by the time they are teenagers, they have learned to walk around with their hands out, waiting to receive something from the government, or from business, simply because they "deserve" it or are "entitled" to it. This is awful!

It is this exact mentality that has kept so many young people from achievement. You see, as long as men can keep you dependent on the government, they will keep you dependent on them, thereby preserving their own power and fortunes. However, if you were to ever succeed on your own, then you would no longer need them, and you would not be able to be controlled. Always remember, you can only be controlled if you are ignorant. This is why many politicians want to keep the populace ignorant to reality, and dependent on the government. As long as they can do this, they will keep themselves in power. Those who allow themselves to think this way, and to have the "entitlement" mentality will find themselves poor and despondent, and very pitiful for the rest of their lives.

And, the most dangerous element of this mentality is that it has effectively removed any and all responsibility from individual people. Are you poor? It's not your fault (they say). Are you uneducated? It's not your fault (they say). Are you a drug addict? It's not your fault (they say). Are you a murderer? A gang banger? Are you fourteen years old and pregnant? Are you a prostitute? Are you obese? Don't worry, none of it is your fault (they say). You are simply a victim of society! Don't worry though, because your friendly neighborhood, lying, liberal politician will be more than happy to introduce legislation that will lift any and all accountability for yourself, and keep you on the public dole. By the way, he doesn't ever want you to get off the dole, either.

The problem here is that this is all one big fat lie from the pits of hell! Furthermore, this attitude is so strong and alive in the minds of young people, that it has crept into the church. Young people are now trained to believe that none of their errors and sins are their own "fault," therefore they have no need for repentance. The world has literally trained young people to believe that they are victims of society, when in reality they are the servants of sin. John 8:34 'Jesus answered them Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whosoever committeth sin is the servant of sin.'

This mentality has literally kept many sinners from repenting. After all, why would one need to repent for something that they are not responsible for? I can't tell you how many outright sinners I have met that are still gang-banging, smoking, cussing, doing drugs, fornicating, etc., that honestly think they are not doing anything wrong. In fact, many of them still feel that they have been "done wrong" somehow and that they are deserving of any and all of Uncle Sam's freebees.

Friend of mine, let me give you a freebee. I'm about to give you a little something that won't cost you a dime.

Prayer Chair

A man's daughter had asked the local minister to come and pray with her father. When the minister arrived, he found the man lying in bed with his head propped up on two pillows. An empty chair sat beside his bed.

The minister assumed that the old fellow had been informed of his visit. "I guess you were expecting me," he said. "No, who are you?" said the father. "I'm the new minister at your church," he replied. "When I saw the empty chair, I figured you knew I was going to show up." "Oh yeah, the chair," said the bedridden man. "Would you mind closing the door?"

Puzzled, the minister shut the door. "I have never told anyone this, not even my daughter," said the man. "But all of my life I have never known how to pray. At church I used to hear the pastor talk about prayer, but it went right over my head. I abandoned any attempt at prayer," the old man continued, "until one day, about four years ago, my best friend said to me, 'Joe, prayer is just a simple matter of having a conversation with Jesus.

Here is what I suggest. Sit down in a chair; place an empty chair in front of you, and in faith see Jesus on the chair. It's not spooky because He promised, 'I'll be with you always.' Then, just speak to Him in the same way you're doing with me right now.'

So, I tried it, and I've liked it so much that I do it a couple of hours every day. I'm careful though. If my daughter saw me talking to an empty chair, she'd either have a nervous breakdown or send me off to the funny farm."

The minister was deeply moved by the story and encouraged the old man to continue on the journey. Then he prayed with him, anointed him with oil, and returned to the church. Two nights later the daughter called to tell the minister that her daddy had died that afternoon.

"Did he die in peace?" he asked. "Yes, when I left the house about two o' clock, he called me over to his bedside, told me he loved me and kissed me on the cheek. When I got back from the store an hour later, I found him dead. But there was something strange about his death. Apparently, just before Daddy died, he leaned over and rested his head on the chair beside the bed. What do you make of that?"

The minister wiped a tear from his eye and said, "I wish we could all go like that."

Don't put the responsibility of your soul on the church. The church itself cannot actually save you, for you must save yourself (Acts 2:40) The church will simply be the environment in which you will grow spiritually as the spiritual mother to the saints, but just like a natural mother, the church cannot live your life for you.

Finally quit feeling sorry for yourself and get up and start living for God with everything you've got!

It's time to whine-bagging(that means whining!) and start taking responsibility for your own actions, if you've made mistakes fix them. If you're in sin repent! If you're poor get a job (and then don't waste your money). If you're unlearned, read some books.

Do not try to pawn off your situation on somebody else, for you must bear your own burden, and you must take responsibility for yourself.

Galatians 6:5 "For every man shall bear his own burden end

Entitled to Nothing Responsible for Everything

one man called this land yap): THE ONLY THING WE DESERVE IS TO GO TO HELL!

The Bible teaches us that all men have sinned (Romans 3:23) and that the wages of sin is death (Romans 6:23). Therefore, we understand that all men deserve to die and go to hell. It is only by the grace and mercies of a loving God, that we even have the opportunity to be saved from sin. Seeing then that we are truly only entitled to eternal damnation in hell, what manner of life ought we to live in all holiness, righteousness, and purity! For if God spared not the angels that sinned, but cast them down to hell (2 Peter 2:4), why on earth would anybody think that they are not responsible for their own sin, and that God would spare them? Plainly stated, we are entitled to nothing and responsible for everything. If you go to hell, it will be your own fault, and nobody else's.

Jeremiah 31:30 "But every one shall die for his own iniquity ... "

Job understood this (in fact, every man who has had common sense from the beginning of time has understood this). Job simply recognized that if there was a problem in his life, that it was his fault, and even if it wasn't, he was going to have to solve it.

Job 19:4 "And be it indeed that I have erred, mine error remaineth with myself"

In the church these days, we have many young people who have this deplorable "entitlement" mentality They come to church looking for a social handout. What can the church do for me? What can the Pastor do for me? What about me? What's in it for me? As you can see, the "entitlement" mentality is no more than outright selfishness packaged and disguised as personal pity and confusion. And this selfishness is totally enabled and fed by a masquerade of political compassion. In other words big name politicians play on people's pity, and pretend to be compassionate towards them, all the while they are simply taking advantage of them, and they don't even know it(because they are so ignorant to reality).

The bottom line is this: if you have the "entitlement" mentality, get rid of it immediately! Repent of this thy wickedness. Get this stinking thinking out of your mind before it destroys your soul! You must learn to take responsibility for yourself.

You're Always There for Me

*When the world comes crashing in
And chaos rules my mind,
I turn my heart to you, Lord,
And pure, sweet peace I find.*

*You lift me out of trouble
You comfort me in pain;
You nourish, heal and cleanse me,
Like cool, refreshing rain.*

*In times of joy and bliss,
When things are going right,
You lift me even higher,
And fill me with delight.*

*You listen to my prayers;
You hear my every plea;
I'm safe because I know
You're always there for me.*

Joy On Your Journey

*Your greatest power is the power to be.
To be more courageous.
To be more joyous.
To be more friendly.
To be more sensitive.
To be more aware.
To be more forgiving.
To be more tolerant.
To be more humble.
To be more patient.
To be more helpful.
To be more like God*

*Encouragement like flowers
Can brighten a way,
Turn storms into rain
Paint colors from gray.
Find good in the bad
Bring laughter from pain,
Lift up a spirit
Even loosen a chain.
Rainbows from darkness*

*Or a peek at the sun,
blessings enjoyed
Or a moment of fun.
Sharing is easy
With a little each day,
Blossoms of joy
To brighten the day.*

Preparing For Heaven

*The knob on the door to heaven extends to one side alone,
It's a place of great exaltation with God seated on the throne.
No need for a knob on the inside, it's a home where all long to go,
Where great joys are never ending and praises ring to and fro.*

*The key that lets one enter cannot be bought with gold,
No funds or jewels or empires; this key will not be sold.
No power, prestige or position, not titles or honor or fame,
It's the wonderful gift of salvation, purchased with love in Christ's name.*

*It's the sacrifice humans can't offer, no commitment we make can atone;
For sin has tainted our image, it's Jesus whose holy, alone.
And through God's great act of mercy, forgiving our failures and sin,
Can we pass through that door of salvation,
Through Christ we're allowed to come in.*

*Be assured there's no other entrance, though many have tried on their own,
The efforts of man are all futile, as Scripture so clearly has shown.
The call to the lost is, "Come hither, earthly belongings are vain,"
Rise to the plea that's extended, it may not be offered again.*

*Many are those who will falter, leaving their fate to the last,
Forgetting that time's of the essence, the dye to their future is cast.
Show God that you are responding, cast aside all your earthly cares,
Prepare for your journey to heaven where all of Christ's blessings you'll share.*

The Bend in the Road

*Sometimes we come to life's crossroads
And we view what we think is the end.
But God has a much wider vision
And He knows it's only a bend -
The road will go on and get smoother
And after we've stopped for a rest,
The path that lies hidden beyond us
Is often the path that is best.
So rest and relax and grow stronger,
Let go and let God share your load
And have faith in a brighter tomorrow
You've just come to a bend in the road.
~ Helen Steiner Rice*

God Seen In His Works

*There's not a tint that paints the rose,
Or decks the lily fair,
Or streaks the humblest flower that blows,
But God has placed it there.*

*At early dawn, there's not a gale
Across the landscape driven,
And not a breeze that sweeps the vale,
That is not sent by Heaven.*

*There's not, of grass, a single blade,
Or leaf of loveliest green,
Where heavenly skill is not displayed,
And heavenly wisdom seen.*

*There's not a tempest, dark and dread,
Or storm that rends the air,
Or blast that sweeps the ocean's bed,
But God's own voice is there.*

*Around,--beneath,--below,--above,-- Wherever space extends,
There God displays His boundless love,
And power with mercy blends.*

As you go about your days.
Your example will help others
To learn our Savior's ways.
Many doors in life are opened
With God's light shining through.

Of His good, for me and you.
We accept all good in life
With heartfelt gratitude.
God's generous light will guide the way
For the living multitude.
Light your candle from His light,
And carry it to others.
His light brings peace throughout the world And joy to all our brothers!

May You!

May you have enough happiness
to keep you sweet.
May you have enough trials
to keep you strong.
May you have enough sorrow
to keep you human.
May you have enough hope
to keep you happy.
May you have enough failure
to keep you humble.
May you have enough success
to keep you eager.
May you have enough friends
to give you comfort.
May you enough wealth to have your needs
May you have enough enthusiasm to look forward.
May you have enough faith
to banish depression.
May you have enough determination to make each day better than yesterday.

Lord, when we are wrong, make us willing to change and when we are right, make us easy to live with.

There's A Way

There's a way that no fowl knoweth
And no vulture's eye hath seen;
Over it no lion goeth,
Neither passeth aught unclean.

There's a way where weary mortals
Find release from sin and strife;
'Tis a way that's everlasting,
Blessed way and truth and life.

'Tis a way that's straight and narrow,
Where we walk by simple faith,
Even through the midst of trouble
And the shadowy vale of death.

'Tis a way beside still waters,
Where are found the paths of peace,
Where we rest amid green pastures,
And our sighs and sorrows cease.

There's a way, and walk ye In It
Meekly, humbly with thy God;
They shall run and not be weary,
That are hid with Christ in God.

The Lord Will Provide

In some way or other the Lord will provide:
It may not be my way,
It may not be thy way,
And yet, in his own way,
"The Lord will provide."

At some time or other the Lord will provide:
It may not be my time,
It may not be thy time,
And yet, in his own time,
"The Lord will provide."

Despond, then, no longer; the Lord will provide;
And this be the token:
No word he hath spoken
Was ever yet broken:
"The Lord will provide."

March on, then, right boldly; the sea shall divide
The pathway made glorious;
With shoutings victorious,
We'll join in the chorus,
"The Lord will provide."

Mrs. M. A. W. Cook

What God Hath Promised

Poet: Annie Johnson Flint

God hath not promised
skies always blue,
Flower strewn pathways
all our lives through;
God hath not promised
sun without rain,
Joy without sorrow,
peace without pain.

But God hath promised
strength for the day,
Rest for the labor,
Light for the way,
Grace for the trials,
Help from above,
Unfailing sympathy,
Undying love.

CELESTIAL HORIZONS

“God has reserved

and decay.”

1 PETER 1:4 (LB)

It's Not About You!

Life wasn't meant to be easy, a time to lay down and rest,
Life's a process of learning with many a trial and test.
Life's not a bed of sweet roses or a sunny beach on the shore,
The hurdles we face are many, there's much that one must endure.

Yet all the while we are traveling God is fully aware,
We're pilgrims, this place is not permanent, a wee space of time that we share.

But we have a mission, a duty, a call to the lost must go out,
The message of Jesus the Saviour is what our journey's about.

It's true, we'll find much rejection, many will treat us with scorn,
But life was not meant to be easy, at best we might feel quite forlorn.
He knows when you feel like a failure, He knows when your plans don't succeed,
He feels the pressure you're facing, He knows where your future will lead.

Take heart, the Master of Glory knows when you're tattered and torn;
There's nothing that's hid from the Saviour, the sins that cause you mourn.
When folks reject what you stand for, the message that falls on deaf ears,
The personal message of Jesus that caused Him the taunts and the jeers.

Try to remember your calling, this whole thing is not about you;
God has requested your service, and to that mission you need to be true.
God's not concerned about numbers, it's faithfulness that He desires,
You take the message of Jesus; the Spirit's the One who inspires.

Leave the results with the Saviour, diligently pray and prod;
Earnestly follow His guidance, and leave the results up to God

Earth's Dark Day

Why look so sad, old earth?
Your clouds are hanging low,
You look as though you're going to weep.
What has disturbed you so?

Oh, yes I plainly understand,
Your hidden secret I know,
You're wondering if the selfish folk
Would be pleased with rain or snow.

Now do not ponder quite so deep.
But make your worry less;
Remember that 'tis God above
Who sends down what is best.

God's Time

God's time is different than ours
The Lord who made the moon and the stars
Has time which we don't understand
All things were created on his command.

With God a day is like a thousand years
So as we pray about our fears
Trust in Him and His timing too
He knows better than we do.

And a thousand years are like a day
That is hard to understand, you say
He sees the present and the future
Which makes His timing such a treasure.
